D J N A T E N E L S O N . C O M

BIOGRAPHY

While most students were studying for finals in college, Nate was fine tuning his life skills. Mixing it up in the college nightlife scene reflected in his grades, but the value of learning the art of mixing music early in his career would pay off in the end. Fast-forward 15 years, Nate can now buy all the sneakers he wanted growing up. That's the true meaning of success, right?

Nate started his Dallas DJ career bouncing from bar to bar, it wasn't until he met his mentor and business partner, Glenn Roush, that he leaped head first into the private event world with LeForce Entertainment. Nate's resume includes intimate night clubs, festival stages, working with celebrity athletes such as Lindsey Vonn, Alex Rodriguez, Sean Lee, Adrian Beltre and opening for Waka Flocka and Travis Scott. Nate keeps finding himself leveling up his event game by bringing a high energy, club atmosphere to his weddings and corporate events. Nate is a key founder of Kings of Prom, a festival-inspired school dance production company.

Nate grew up in Oklahoma then transplanted to Dallas after falling in love with his dream girl. Nate and his wife, Jennifer, married in 2008 and have two beautiful daughters, Mollie and Kate. Follow Nate's journey on Instagram @djenatelson.
